

CONTACT

office: 905-494-9457
web: www.kildonanenergy.com
195 Clayton Drive, Units 8 & 9
Markham, ON L3R 7P3

Kildonan Energy provides products designed to increase comfort and at the same time reduce energy consumption. Proper amounts of fresh air, improved filtration, reducing flow to only what is required, and monitoring our thermal consumption will improve the comfort and air quality in every building.

Danfoss have established themselves as the LEADER in HVAC VFD technology. The Reliability, Simplicity and Full Feature set of the VLT product line makes it the right solution for any HVAC application Grundfos offer a full line of Pumps, tanks, heat exchangers and accessories for HVAC, Irrigation, submersible, fire protection and plumbing applications.

Ebtron Thermal Airflow stations are designed to improve the control and reliability of all types of airflow measurement requirements.

Badger have established themselves as the industry standard ensuring that they have the right meter for every application. Whether it is a Full Bore Magnetic meter, Ultrasonic or Turbine.

Since 1971, WCC (Water Control Corporation) has been helping architects, engineers, plumbing/mechanical contractors, and industry distributors to solve their clients' difficult water problems.

SecureAire's PACT filtration system removes and eliminates particles that are not influenced by our current HVAC systems. SecureAire eliminates viruses, bacteria and odours from the air.

Made in Canada, Calefactio offers a full range of expansion tanks, air and dirt separators, condensate pumps, and glycol make-up packages.

AntrumX™ monitors the Indoor Air Quality (IAQ) of up to 32 spaces from a single location. 2022 AHR Expo Innovation Awards Competition Winner: Indoor Air Quality